FAIRWEATHER FRIENDS

(1st Portrait)

You need a love that will not change
You want a lover to remain for ever yours.
But you don't have to worry, never have to fear
Through thick and thin I'll always be here.

I'll be your bridge over and through troubled waters
You'll never have to face it alone.
And when the world seems to treat you unfair,
Baby for you I'll always be there.

Yearbook Message

Dr. Annette Kearney

"One's work may be finished some day, but one's education never."

Alexandre Dumas, pere

I celebrate this milestone with you, because there are so many forces attempting to inhibit your progress. Try to take hold of significant pieces of information and history and relect for a moment, so that this 'dogged pace of change doesn't tear your asunder'!

This period of your adolescent development took you through the Challenger tragedy, nationally, Quality Education Act in New Jersey and the outbreak of the Gulf War internationally. The World order for you most likely will be unrecognizeable in five years. It is our hope that the training ground here in the school, community and church will stand you in good stead as a critical thinker, problem solver and decision-maker.

Congratulations and welcome to the next level of achievement.

Principal

Theodore Brown

TO THE CLASS OF 1991

Congratulations! You have achieved a significant milestone in your lives. Your hard work and perseverance have been rewarded and applauded.

As I write this message American troops are in the desert of Saudi Arabia and the world community is holding its breath hoping to exhale peace. That uncertainty and challenge is the edge on which our dwindling twentieth century civilization has come to rest. Our recent history is a story of anxiety and foreboding. But each year this tradition - your confidence, enthusiasm and energy are the new bright and shining star of rejuvenation.

My wish for each of you is to begin to see and appreciate yourselves in the long term. Do not make the critical decisions of your life for immediate comfort and avoidance. By not confronting life on its own terms, you may create a ghost of horrific proportions.

The entire Plainfield High School family wishes you every continued success. We have great expectations that you will continue to advance the cause of civilization.

Everybody Say Cheese!!!

NINETY NINE

Baby call my name and I'll be there
Lay your head on my shoulder.
Lay your head on my shoulder.
I will be right there for you
Through the bad times my baby
I'll be your sunshine
Time and time again

As you wander
On through life,
Whatever be your goal,
Keep your eye upon
The doughnut and
Not upon the hole.

That's the Optimist's Creed . . . some unknown genius's shining advice to people starting out in life. Remember it after you graduate. Keep confidence in yourself. And may good fortune always be your companion.
